Serenity

My brothers and sisters of Albion

I come to you fresh from my battle at Elwas, where I saw many of our loyal family die for the good of the Heartlands. We have our Ahari problem in the North within York, and we have what appears to be their 'poor relations' in Cornwall, the Nishak. Albion is a welcoming home for those that swear fealty to Her, the Pendragon Throne and the Trinity. However, to those who wish to invade we will show them our teeth and our steel.

We have two issues, one north, one south. We will deal with our southern issue in Cornwall and move forward to wipe all invaders from Albion. I call on you now to summon your strength for arms, your faith and your learning, to come together and take back this part of Albion from those who hold it in their filthy, decaying grip, reclaiming Serenity for the King once more.

In service of the Pendragon Throne.

Gabriel Bathroy

Lord Regent of Albion
